About the Instructor

Andy started playing tennis at age 16 and has been playing USTA tennis in tournaments and league play for 30 years. He has coached high school tennis since 1999, currently at Argonaut High School where this season the team had a 10-0 winning record. Andy will have some of his star players helping him with this camp, and he is also available for private instruction.

No pre-registration required.
Enroll & pay on the days you want to attend.
